

The association of the Swiss furniture trade and industry möbelschweiz represents the Swiss furniture industry. It promotes the competitiveness of its members and advocates creative and innovative work, the pursuit of quality and the principles of fair competition. With the exchange of market information, you stay up to date and can react quickly to new market developments. The umbrella association möbelschweiz comprises the two sections Association of the Swiss Furniture Industry and SMFV Swiss Furniture Association and is organized as an association.